PRESS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Green Bancorp, Inc. Provides Operational Update Regarding Hurricane Harvey

Houston – August 30, 2017 – Green Bancorp, Inc. (NASDAQ: GNBC), the bank holding company that operates Green Bank, N.A., today announced that the Bank has sustained only minimal damage to its branches and experienced no interruption of basic service to its customers. The Bank's Houston branches will reopen for customer business tomorrow, Thursday, August 31st. Additionally, the Bank is offering financial services to its customers in this difficult time, including:

- Free ATM usage¹
- One-time penalty free CD withdrawal²
- Special assistance for consumer residential loan customers impacted by flooding³

Manny Mehos, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Green Bancorp, said, "We sincerely wish the best for those who have endured hardship from this devastating storm and we salute those who have bravely come to their aid. Our focus during this challenging time has been to ensure that our employees are safe while providing the important support and service that our clients and local community need. I am pleased to report that we were able to deliver uninterrupted service to our customers through the storm and will be reopening our branches tomorrow. This is a testament to the dedication and commitment of our employees. The Bank will also be donating $25,000 to the relief efforts in order to help those most in need."

Geoff Greenwade, President of Green Bancorp and Chief Executive Officer of Green Bank, commented, "While our employees are safe and our branch network has been largely unaffected by Hurricane Harvey, many of the local communities that we serve have experienced widespread flooding and damage. Our bankers are in the process of contacting their customers in the region's hardest hit areas to evaluate the impact of the storm and provide assistance. We stand ready to support Houston as the recovery from the storm continues and the rebuilding of the City begins."
